

Rapid Financial Solutions – Online Payment Debit/Credit Card FAQ's

1. Who will have access to the credit card information? The NIAA has contracted with a company called Rapid Financial Solutions to handle the registration payment process. Rapid Financial Solutions has sole possession of the provided debit/credit card information. The information is encrypted at the time of the transaction and “tokenized”. All further communication between Rapid Financial Solutions and ArbiterSports regarding the particular debit/credit would use this “token” in place of the actual card information. You can Click Here to go to the Rapid Financial Solutions website for information on this company.

2. What is provided to the NIAA as way of notification that an official has completed the registration process and made payment? The NIAA is notified by e-mail when an official has completed their registration and made payment. This confirmation e-mail does show the last 4 digits of the card used in the transaction as well as the actual name on the debit/credit card. The name on the card may be different than the name of the official being registered.

3. What is the cost to the official for using this company to handle registration payments? There is no cost to the official. All associated costs for the online payment feature is billed directly to the NIAA.

4. Will officials be able to print out a receipt once payment has been made? How will that be made available to them? Yes. As long as a correct e-mail address is entered in the personal information, a receipt showing payment of fees will be sent to your e-mail account.
